

WiRES – Women in Renewable Energy Sector

Second partners meeting

Sofia, 13 May 2010

UPEE premises, 30 Kap. Todor Nochev Str., 1407 Sofia, Bulgaria

Participants:

- Dechev Teodor (UPEE);
- Gospodinova Radosveta (UPEE);
- Rossu Balazs (University of Szeged);
- Rossi Giulia (Adapt);
- Terzimehic Selma (Adapt).

Agenda:

1. Post – workshop thematic dossier
2. Final report
3. Case studies' template
4. Final conference
5. Project development: workload sharing and timetable

1. Post – workshop thematic dossier

- The partners agreed to share all the publications related to WiRES to their entire network of contacts.
- The partners agreed to contribute to the Dossier which will follow the workshop each with an article summarizing the workshop's presentations.
- The partners exchanged all the material presented during the Workshop;
- UPEE will provide for the publications of two Bulgarian magazines dealing with Human Resources and Industrial relations, whose representatives were present at the Workshop and send the copies of the articles to the other partners.

2. Final report

- The partners have shared the draft index of the final report.
- Each partners will work on a specific case study as previously agreed.

WiRES (Women in Renewable Energy Sector) is a project co-funded by the European Commission, DG Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities (budget heading 04.03.03.01, Industrial Relations and Social Dialogue).

The sole responsibility of this event lies with the Author and the European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.

- The representative of the Faculty of Law from Szeged, Mr. Balasz Rossu is available to be contacted and contribute to the part related to social dialogue in renewable energy sector.

3. Case studies' template

- The partners accorded to work on the case studies selected at company's level;
- Partners are going to verify the possibility for Hungarian and Bulgarian partners to work on a case study concerning the biomasses, instead of eolic or solar photovoltaic sector, while Italian partners maintain the decision to work on solar energy.

4. Final conference

- The partners accorded on the draft agenda of the final conference that will be organized in November 2010 in Bruxelles.

5. Project development: workload sharing and timetable

- The partners discussed the programme for the next workshop that will take place on 27th and 28th of May in Karlsruhe, Germany, as a part of an international conference on "Human Capital for Sustainability":
 - The Italian partners will provide for a presentation of project and a paper on the theme of "Women in green economy". During the same event, a representative of CISL – Policies for Women Department from Italy, will present a work on the subject of Trade unions for Women in green economy;
 - The Bulgarian and Hungarian partners will give the feedback about their availability to present their work on the second workshop as soon as possible (by the end of the next week);
- The representatives of Faculty of Law in Szeged, Hungary, will send their proposals of intervention for the third Workshop, that will be held in Milan, Italy, and will focus on the role of social dialogue.

WiRES (Women in Renewable Energy Sector) is a project co-funded by the European Commission, DG Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities (budget heading 04.03.03.01, Industrial Relations and Social Dialogue).

The sole responsibility of this event lies with the Author and the European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.