Areas of Expertise

International and comparative Employment Law; employment relations and regulation; outsourcing processes and liability systems.

Education

October 2014: PhD Student at College of Business, Public Policy & Law of University of Galway (NUIG).

September 2009 – September 2014: Masters Degree in Law, Department of Law at the University of Turin, final evaluation of 105/110. The title of my final master thesis is “Outsourcing processes, joint and several liability”. I have focused my study in the field of Labor Law, International Law, Human Rights and Criminal Law.

September 2012 - June 2013: 10 month period of studying at the University of Nice (France) for the Double Degree Program in Italian and French Law.

2009: High School Graduation. Liceo Scientifico Norberto Bobbio (Carignano, Turin). High school degree with the final evaluation of 95/100.

Work Experience

November 2013 - May 2014: a 6 month period of collaboration for the Certification Commission at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia. I worked in order to elaborate on my final master thesis and to discover the world of work. Main activities: case law research and labor contracts analysis.

Since July 2013 I have been a partner in Pasta Piemonte. This is a company that my family and I formed last year; it is situated in Menton, France. Initially I was assisting with the administrative work to get the business up and running and then I worked in the Shop as a Shop Assistant and Salesperson.

June – July 2008: Curricular Internship in Assirivoli Insurance s.a.s., Rivoli (Turin, Italy). Main activities: Computer databases, Secretarial work, Public Relations.
