PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

During the years of University, I deepen and develop my knowledge of labor law, of administrative law and European law, in a national and comparative key. I know how to use the main research databases, how to draft reports; I have comparative analysis skills.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Good knowledge of written and spoken English.

Basic knowledge of French and modern Greek.

IT SKILLS

Good knowledge and use of Microsoft Windows operating systems.

Good computer knowledge of Microsoft Office packages.

Excellent knowledge and use of the main browsers for Internet browsing.

Excellent knowledge and use of e-mail.

Good management of the main social networks.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL SKILLS

I consider myself a determined, reliable person and inclined to work both individually and in groups. I am very curious and open to different stimuli and ideas. Thanks to University years and associative experience, I have learned to adapt and to relate to different realities and environments. I have a strong sense of responsibility, that sometimes limits me, but my goal is a continuous growth and development, both individually and in group.

NON-PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS

Reading, music, art, travel, debates, painting.
