

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK ON SCHOOL-TO-WORK TRANSITION

This on-line cooperation area is dedicated to the challenge of school-to-work transition pathways and it is aimed at achieving a better understanding of the issue in a global dimension through an interdisciplinary and comparative approach.

The aim of the network is building sound knowledge, sharing best practices and setting up projects and other cooperation activities at an international level. In order to provide continuity to the activities of the network, we invite you to stay in touch through this on-line cooperation area, where you can share your ideas, comments, opinions and experiences.

Adapt invites you to join the network!

Becoming a member of the network gives you the opportunity to debate with other people the issue of school-to-work transition in the light of productivity, investment in human capital and challenge of youth employment.

IF YOU WANT TO JOIN THE NETWORK,
JUST SEND AN E-MAIL TO info@adapt.it!

In your e-mail, please, specify your affiliation, brief professional profile and attach your CV with a recent picture!

· By providing these data, you authorize Adapt to publish this information and your picture in the on-line cooperation area "Productivity, Investment in Human Capital and the Challenge of Youth Employment", at <http://moodle.adapt.it>