Professional Skills

Legal skills: thanks to my university education and various professional experiences, I have developed excellent skills in research and synthesis of legal notions related mainly to the branch of civil law, labor law and industrial relations law. Studying over time has helped me to more accurately frame all the concrete cases examined, and experience in the field has enabled me to quickly resolve all the cases examined.

Skills in industrial relations: the experience in Assosistema Confindustria was fundamental to understanding the dynamics of industrial relations and to deepening all the issues related to collective bargaining.

Skills in labor law: thanks to the lessons of the doctoral program and the master's degree in labor law, I was able to constantly and precisely study in depth the normatova of labor law and all the various institutes, studying both the main aspects and the more particular ones.
